

INSTITUTE ON AGING SEMINAR SERIES, SPRING 2004

Session no.	date	at	topic	speaker	series	remarks
1	8 Jan	10-11:30	Can cultural beliefs explain physical health effects of caregiving?	Peggye Dilworth-Anderson	ECRA	CONFIRMED
2	15 Jan	10-11:30	Politics of Medicare	Jon Oberlander, Social Medicine		CONFIRMED
	20 Jan	1-7	Aging Exchange			All CPHAR fellows must present
3	22 Jan	10-11:30	Understanding obesity across the generations	Alice Ammerman Dept of Nutrition	ECRA
4	29 Jan	10-11:30	Older persons and their health care providers: ongoing research initiatives	Bob Konrad, Senior Researcher, Institute on Aging		CONFIRMED
5	5 Feb	10-11:30	Aging, Memory, and Judgment Bias	Ute Bayen, Dept. of Psychology		CONFIRMED
6	12 Feb	11:30-1:00	Falls, Risk and Intervention Research	Carol Giuliani, Allied Health Sci.		CONFIRMED
7	19 Feb	all day	Program in Aging, Challenges in Geriatric Practice Conference			required for CPHAR fellows
8	26 Feb	10-11:30	Social determinants and health status outcomes	Leigh Callahan		CONFIRMED
	26-29 Feb		AGHE Conference	Richmond		Encouraged for CHPAR fellows
9	4 Mar	10-11:30	Incontinence	Mary Palmer School of Nursing		CONFIRMED
	5-14 March		SPRING BREAK
10	17 March	all day	Women's Health Research Day	Friday Center		required for CHPAR fellows
11	25 March	10-11:30	Using multi-level models to study neighborhood effects: Mental and physical health over the life course	Philippa Clarke Duke University		CONFIRMED

	1-4 April		SGS	Atlanta		encouraged for CPHAR fellows
12	8 April	10- 11:30	Multi-level Models	Guang Guo Dept. of Sociology		CONFIRMED
13	15 April	10- 11:30	Functional health literacy and help seeking and receiving behavior among Medicare Managed Care enrollees	Shoou-Yih and Daniel Lee  Dept. of Health Policy and Administration	ECRA	CONFIRMED
14	22 April	10- 11:30	Bringing the Older Minority Community to the Research Process	Center for Aging and Diversity Community Research Advisory Board Members	ECRA	CONFIRMED
	23 April		Last day of UNC classes

UNC Institute on Aging Seminar Series, Spring term, 2004

The UNC Aging Seminar Series includes the ECRA (Ethnicity, Culture, Race and Aging) seminar series and the entire series serves as the seminar series for CPHAR (Carolina Program for Healthcare and Aging Research).

Last revised 15 January 2004
Filename seminars 04 jan8